

Biography

Dr. Nahro Zagros was born in Iraqi Kurdistan and obtained his doctorate in Anthropology and Ethnomusicology from York University (UK) in 2010.

He serves as the editor-in-chief of Kurdistan Chronicle, a monthly English-language magazine. Having previously served as Vice President of Soran University, Dr. Zagros is actively involved in academic endeavors.

He extensively contributes to local and international newspapers and scholarly journals, offering valuable insights into the socio-political landscape of Kurdistan within the broader Middle Eastern context.