

Biography

Mr. Rawaz Rauf is one of Iraq's leading angel investors and a senior financial and strategy advisor to family-owned group of companies. Holds more than a decade of experience in the telecom and technology business in Iraq.

Currently serves in various roles, including as a member of the board of directors of Dilnia Insurance, and commercial strategy advisor to Ashur Brick.

Is one of the first angel investors in Iraq's nascent start-up ecosystem, and is a cofounder and CEO of Ecopay, an environmentally-friendly start-up focused on distributing electronic voucher payments across Iraq.

Mr. Rauf holds an MBA from the American University of Iraq Sulaimani and an engineering degree from University College London UCL.