

Biography

Capt. Dori F. Abouzeid an entrepreneurial spirit. Passion to succeed. Proven entrepreneur — solely responsible for launching, managing, and growing three successful aviation-focused businesses over the past two decades. Seasoned Airline Transport Pilot (ATP). FAA Licensed aircraft mechanic. Under the hood — holds an Airframe and Powerplant (A&P) mechanic's license. Up in the air — more than 16,000 hours of international and domestic flight experience, which includes flying many country dignitaries and celebrities. Visionary leader. Real-world expertise.

A quarter of a century in corporate aviation expertise with vast knowledge of VIP aircraft management, maintenance, charters, sales, acquisitions, and Fixed Base Operations (FBO). He attended Spartan School of Aeronautics and then graduated from Northrop University.